

OIML Seminar on Legal Metrology in Daily Life

“Legal Metrology Infrastructure of Countries and Economies with Emerging Metrology Systems (CEEMS)”

14–15 May 2015
Jinjiang Hotel, Chengdu, China

Introduction and methodology

This Seminar will be open to invited guests from representatives of OIML member countries, representatives from RLMOs, members of AG, CIML Presidential Council Members and others who are interested in interactively exchanging information and participating in discussion with the aim of improving legal metrology infrastructures, and notably how legal metrology can improve our daily lives.

On Day 1, there will be an on-site visit to see how legal metrology is applied in Chengdu.

Organizer

International Organization of Legal Metrology (OIML).

Supporting Organization

Administration of Quality Supervision, Inspection and Quarantine (AQSIQ) of P.R. China.

Presentation from each Economy

At least one participant from each country is asked to provide a brief presentation about legal metrology in the daily life of their country. Suggested topics include verification bodies, government supervision, public service, etc.

Registration

Please complete the “Registration Form” and send it by email (aplmfsec@163.com) or fax (+86-10-8226-0131). The deadline for registration is 20 April 2015.

Climate

The average temperature at Chengdu is about 18–28 °C in May.
